Corporate power over territories and people