
Resistance to oil exploitation in the Tropics

Oilwatch Quito, Ecuador, has just published "Voces de resistencia" (Spanish version) with a great deal of relevant and current information related to the environmental impact of oil companies in tropical countries from Africa, Asia and Latin America. The book has been written to the memory of Ken Saro-Wiwa killed in Nigeria in 1995 for opposing Shell depredatory activities.