
Impacts of monoculture tree plantations

Testimonies from a meeting about the impacts of monoculture tree plantations and the threats of genetically engineered trees that took place in Porto Alegre, Brazil, in April 2019.

The meeting brought together organizations, networks, communities and experts from those states in Brazil impacted by industrial tree plantations and threatened by the potential planting of commercial GE trees.