
Sharing knowledge and experiences from struggles in defense of forests

Activists from the World Rainforest Movement (WRM) and the World March of Women share their reflections after an exchange that took place in Brazil, with activists from different territories in Africa, Asia and Latin America. The exchange was an opportunity to have discussions and share challenges, with an emphasis on the contribution of feminism in struggles to defend forests and their communities. Read an article in Spanish, English, Portuguese and French.